

NISQUALLY LODGE #155
ORDER OF THE ARROW
"SCOUTING'S NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY"

CHAPTER INFORMATION SHEET

Members of the Order of the Arrow (OA) are organized, by council, into groups called lodges. Nisqually Lodge, like most lodges, is broken down further, by district, into groups called chapters. Nisqually has nine chapters. Each chapter elects a chapter chief and other chapter officers. The chapter chief can also appoint committee chairmen. The chapter chief, other chapter officers, and chapter committee chairmen serve on the Chapter Executive Committee, the governing body of the chapter.

Chapter Meetings

Once a month, the Chapter Executive Committee (CEC) and the other chapter members will gather, and have a chapter meeting. This is where the chapter plans its activities, lodge activities, unit elections, camping promotions, and much more. Chapter meetings are also a lot of fun. Each chapter will plan different activities for their meetings. Some activities include working on Northwest Indian regalia, learning and practicing Northwest Indian dances and Order of the Arrow ceremonies, having pizza or ice cream parties, watching movies, training, working and helping Arrowmen attain Brotherhood, plus more. The chapters, listed below by their affiliated district, include their meeting location. Take the time to attend your chapter meeting. You will meet new friends and have a blast.

Chapter Program

Besides chapter meetings, many chapters also have additional activities that they plan and run. Each chapter has unit election and camping promotion teams that visit the units of their district once a year. Some chapters also have dance teams. These teams learn and create Northwest Indian legends and dances. After learning the dances, they perform them for troops, packs, community groups, and at section, lodge, or chapter functions. Another popular activity at the chapter level is ceremonies. Chapters form ceremony teams for different Order of the Arrow ceremonies. After learning their parts and practicing at chapter meetings, they perform them at the lodge ordeals. The chapters also help and support their district.
